GET Mike Brodie's A Period of Juvenile Prosperity

After five years, 50,000 miles, 46 states and 200 rolls of film, Brodie came back with a vivid photographic record of a teen subculture living a perilous life on the tracks, distilling it into his first photobook A Period of Juvenile Prosperity. Brodie hopped his first train close to his home in Pensacola, Florida with a plan to visit a friend in Mobile, Alabama, but it took him in the opposite direction to Jacksonville, Florida.

A Period of Juvenile Prosperity by Mike Brodie - Goodreads

A Period of Juvenile Prosperity. But I needed to find out for myself. Two weeks later I was gone, witnessing my new world wizz by, especially at dusk, then darkness as I watched the sum of all the city lights cast my silhouette across the pine trees of the Florida panhandle. This was it, I was riding my very first freight train.
